FULL MEMBERSHIP - REGULATIONS & SUBSCRIPTIONS

In accordance with the provisions of the Constitution, the Board has approved the following regulations regarding membership status and payment of Association subscriptions:

NEW MEMBERS	Full Sawmilling members: Subscriptions may be paid monthly, quarterly, six monthly or in full. For Minimum Saw millers and Associate members subscriptions must be paid in full at the time of approval. Minimum entry sawmillers are not entitled to the full advocacy services of Timber NSW and can be assisted on a fee for service basis.
MEMBERSHIP STATUS	Companies which qualify for full membership of the Association are not permitted as Associate members.

LOG CUT YEAR	Full member subscriptions for the 1 July – 30 June financial year shall be based on the total company log cut (Crown plus Private Property) for the year ending 31 December in the previous year.
MAXIMUM SUBSCRIPTION	A cap of $90,000 indexed each year will be placed on the maximum subscription payable by any member.
PAYMENT OF SUBSCRIPTIONS	Subscriptions are payable by method agreed mutually, prior to 30 June, ie: <input type="checkbox"/> In Full by 31 July <input type="checkbox"/> Quarterly, or <input type="checkbox"/> Monthly Instalments commencing 1 July.
LATE PAYMENT	Members who accumulate more than two quarters of unpaid subscriptions shall be removed from the mailing list but, retained as members until deemed “unfinancial” by the Board.
MILL CLOSURES	If a mill closes during a subscription year due any unforeseen cause, subscriptions shall be adjusted on a pro rata basis for that individual mill, according to the proportion of time the mill was in operation. In this case, the subscription payable shall not be less than the minimum rate. If a mill temporarily ceases operation for more than one year, the minimum subscription rate shall be applied.
MULTI-MILL COMPANIES	Companies comprising more than one mill or production unit (e.g. sawmill, plus pole plant or veneer mill) must contribute subscriptions for all production units which qualify for full membership.
